Quorum: A quorum of 76% of members being present in person or by signed proxy, President Hess called the meeting to order at 10:18AM.

- 1. Management Report was presented by Staton Martin:
 - a. HOA Meeting: Staton presented that the actual annual due date for the HOA meetings it to be held in March. This meeting is the annual 2022 meeting and special assessment meeting together.
 - b. Septic Issues: Staton Martin and Rich Hess briefed the update regarding the septic system. Engineering report determined that the leach field and controls need to be replaced. Bids for the septic system have been received. The quote from CREEF Works was the lowest at $59,900. Staton Martin as worked with numerous banks in the local area and Southern Bank is offering the best terms for construction loan to pay for septic repairs. A Construction loan amounts are on a per draw need basis and interest is only assessed on the amount of the loan actually used. Discussion was held around the loan and payment terms. Septic construction should take 30 days from the time of start. Septic controls may be 90 days to receive and will be installed once received and scheduled
 - i. Pat Sylvia made a motion to secure a loan for $75,000 for repair of the drain field and controls, a $3600 / per unit special assessment will be levied, and can be paid in 3 equal payments of $1200, over 3 years. If a loan cannot be secured a special assessment will be issued for $3600, per unit, due immediately. Motion seconded by Nancy Berthold. Motion passed
 - c. Insurance: Insurance has been renewed with Towne Insurance company and has gone up to $30,813.50.
 - d. 2022 Budget was presented by Staton Martin. Sheena Jones moved to accept the budget as presented, Caroline Felton second, motion passed.
 - e. Overall discussions about landscaping and dog rules was lengthy. The rules regarding dogs were changed to match the bi-laws regarding leashes. Additional discussion was held regarding the possibility of a fenced in area on the septic area once repairs are complete. Additional landscape needs were discussed for the year.

f.	. Motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Bobby Grubbs, Seconded by Pat Sylvia motion carried. Meeting adjourned @ 1130.
